

iRIS Printer

Analogue-addressable fire alarm accessories

- Thermal printer in a metal box
- Suitable for modular structure
- Self test and status indication iRIS Printer is a heat printer specially designed for connection to iRIS4, iRIS8 and iRIS8 Big Box analogue-addressable fire alarm panels. The printer is suitable for building of modular structures with IRIS4, iRIS8, iRIS8 Big Box and IRIS PS72 – back-up power supply unit.

iRIS Printer is used for printing of events list and is equipped with independent own power supply.

Features

- Thermal printer in a metal box
- Suitable for modular structure
- Self test and status indication
- Printing method – direct thermal
- Print density: 8 dots/mm, 576 dots/line
- Print speed: max 170mm/sec
- Two type of fonts supported: 12x24 dots and 9x17 dots

Technical Specifications

Main Power Supply	100-240VAC, 3A
Serial interface	RS-232C to iRIS panels
Paper width	80mm, valid print width 72mm
Print speed max	170mm/sec
Operating temperature	-10°C to +50°C
Color	Grey
Dimensions	430x330x117mm

Last update: 08/2024